

MORE ABOUT US

The Activity Group is the single largest tour activity provider in Iceland and operates closely with all major travel agencies and in cooperation with other tour operators.

The Activity Group operates action tours and activities in various locations in Iceland throughout the year.

Our most important asset is our professional staff. Everyone engaged in our activity service operations has extensive experience in the tourism industry and in activity operations, which are always undertaken with the strictest safety standards employed. Our staff is serious about providing unforgettable and safe adventure experiences!
